

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 3:05-CR-00294-GCM

Defendant.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3624(e), a convicted individual’s “term of supervised release commences on the day the person is released from imprisonment and runs concurrently with any other Federal, State, or local term of probation or supervised release . . . to which the person is subject to becomes subject during the term of supervised release.” It appears to the Court that the order sentencing Defendant to two years of supervised release on each count, to run consecutively, contravenes this provision. The Court has the authority to terminate a defendant's term of supervised release and discharge the defendant if such action is in the interest of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1). Defendant will have completed two years of supervised release on January 21, 2016. Accordingly, the Court will sua sponte order Defendant's supervised release to be terminated on that date.

SO ORDERED.
